FRIENDSHIP, UNITY, CHRISTIAN CHARITY

SEPTEMBER 2018

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Brothers,
Thank you for your patience with this process of getting the new club ready. If you can make the next meeting at Juniata Golf Club on Sept. 19 at 7:30 p.m., we should have some real answers about when the club will open. Again, thank you for your patience.

On another note, we have the Hibernian Ball scheduled for Saturday, Nov. 17, at the Casbah Caterers on Thompson Street. So save the date.

In our motto,

Gene Long

DUES NOTICE

Congratulations Brothers, we have more than 200 members whose dues are paid for 2018! Unfortunately, we still have about 30 brothers who haven't paid.

We all know the drill by now. But just as a reminder, annual dues cost $35. At some point, the division will eventually have to terminate those brothers who do not pay and do not contact us about it.

If you are having difficulty paying for some reason, let us know. If you know of another brother who is having trouble, let us know. We can make arrangements. We want to keep as many brothers as possible.

NEXT DIV. 87 MEETING

Wednesday, Sept. 19, 2018, 7:30 p.m.
Special meeting location at
Juniata Golf Course, 1391 E. Cayuga St.

Attention Veterans!

Last year, the national AOH began trying to document the past military service of our members. As you may know, the national office requires the financial secretary of each division to complete a full roster at the end of each year. This updated roster is submitted with our per capita dues.

As part of that process last year, they asked for the veteran status (if any) of each brother. They want to know the members who served in the military and what branch they served. That's why we added a line on our dues renewal form for members to list their veteran status.

Some brothers have responded on the appropriate line. Others have ignored it. Yet others didn't use the renewal form at all. And that's OK.

But we would still like all of the Division 87 veterans to let us know what branch you served. The Philadelphia County Board has created special pins to recognize member veterans. So to get a pin, you should contact us. After everybody has a chance to respond, we will put a list together and request pins for deserving brothers. Please email me at kennywj@hotmail.com to let me know your

Volunteers Needed

Medal of Honor Grove Clean-Up

On Saturday, Oct. 6, at 10 a.m., members of Philadelphia County AOH will gather in Valley Forge to clean up the Medal of Honor Grove.

This memorial to the 3,447 recipients of the nation's highest military award is set on 52 acres of natural woodland and features sections dedicated to each of the 50 states, the District of Columbia and Puerto Rico. The AOH has its own section dedicated to those MOH recipients who were born outside the country.

The grove is in need of general maintenance. Volunteers will meet at 1600 Valley Forge Road in Phoenixville with rakes, shovels and wheelbarrows to clean up the area. All hands are welcome.

MAJOR DEGREES

The Montgomery County-based Isle of Erin Major Degrees Team welcomes all Hibernians to participate in the following Major Degrees ceremonies:

- Sunday, Oct. 14, in Doylestown, PA
- Sat., Nov. 10, in National Park, NJ

All AOH officers are required to have their Major Degrees. With division elections coming this fall, this is your opportunity to fulfill your Hibernian duty. For all details, visit www.aohnd1.com/degreeteam.htm
